City of Newburgh Human Rights Commission Seeks Members

The City of Newburgh Human Rights Commission is seeking members. Meetings are on the second Wednesday of the month at 4 p.m. at City Hall, 83 Broadway.

Human Rights Commission Chair Dr. Benilda Armstead-Jones said, “We have been appointed by the City Council to foster mutual understanding and respect between and among all the residents of the City, to receive complaints and investigate incidents of tension and conflict based upon differences of race, religion, ethnicity, culture, sexual orientation, or other basis of discrimination.”

You must be a resident of the City of Newburgh to participate. Applicants should forward a letter of interest and resume to:
